Online VE Day Service

Hosted on "Zoom" by St Mary's Church.

11:00 am

Two-Minute Silence

to pay tribute to the service and sacrifice of the entire Second World War generation, followed by a round of applause for the Potterne Good Neighbours.

11:15 am

Online: VE Day Live Stream from the Royal British Legion

Grab a cup of tea and join the RBL on their national website or Facebook page for a 45-minute live stream as they bring the World War Two generation together with today's generation to chat about their shared experiences.

2:45 pm

BBC1: VE Day 75, The Announcement of Victory

Sophie Raworth presents a special tribute to the Second World War generation, including stirring military music, moving personal testimony and readings from VIPs and celebrities.

3:45 pm

VE Day Celebratory Virtual Tea Party

Rev Ali Bridewell invites us all to the virtual Rectory via Zoom, to socialise, chat and maybe even sing-along over a cup of tea or something stronger. Entertainment will be provided, but you will have to provide your own tea and cakes...

8:00 pm

BBC1: The People's Celebration

An evening of memories and music to honour and celebrate the Second World War generation.

Including, at 9 pm, a broadcast to the nation by Her Majesty the Queen.

9:10 pm

BBC1: Remembering Victory

Some of Britain's best-loved entertainers and broadcasters recall the jubilation of VE Day and the years that followed.

Full details of all Potterne-based events and other VE Day information will be posted on <https://Potterne123.uk> during the days preceding VE Day 75.
